

Today (March 14, 2011) Host Ron Winckler speaks with a few mothers who have been harmed (along with their children) by Hawaii's family courts.□

Domestic Violence survivor mom, Paige Calahan speaks about her struggle on Maui under Judge Keith Tanaka. She and her son have been caught up in the nationwide epidemic of family court abuses that are unfortunately very apparent in Hawaii: “Family Courts Helping Pedophiles and Batterers Get Child Custody”.

Joining Ms. Calahan on the show is Attorney Michael Ostendorp and "survivor" moms, Jonea and Cheri. Listen on 1110 at 7am for an eye opening topic. This is the first show in a series on these issues with Mr. Winckler. If you have suffered in Hawaii's family court and would like to share your story, please Contact AngelGroup .
